Montrouge. March, 1857

Sir,

I began your plates in January the way I had promised. I placed the three largest figures in the middle surrounded by a median on each side. This will be a job that will take much time.

I did not think it was urgent to finish this immediately, as this would not help you at all. I hope I can show you these plates on your return. The second one that has many less details will not take long to finish.

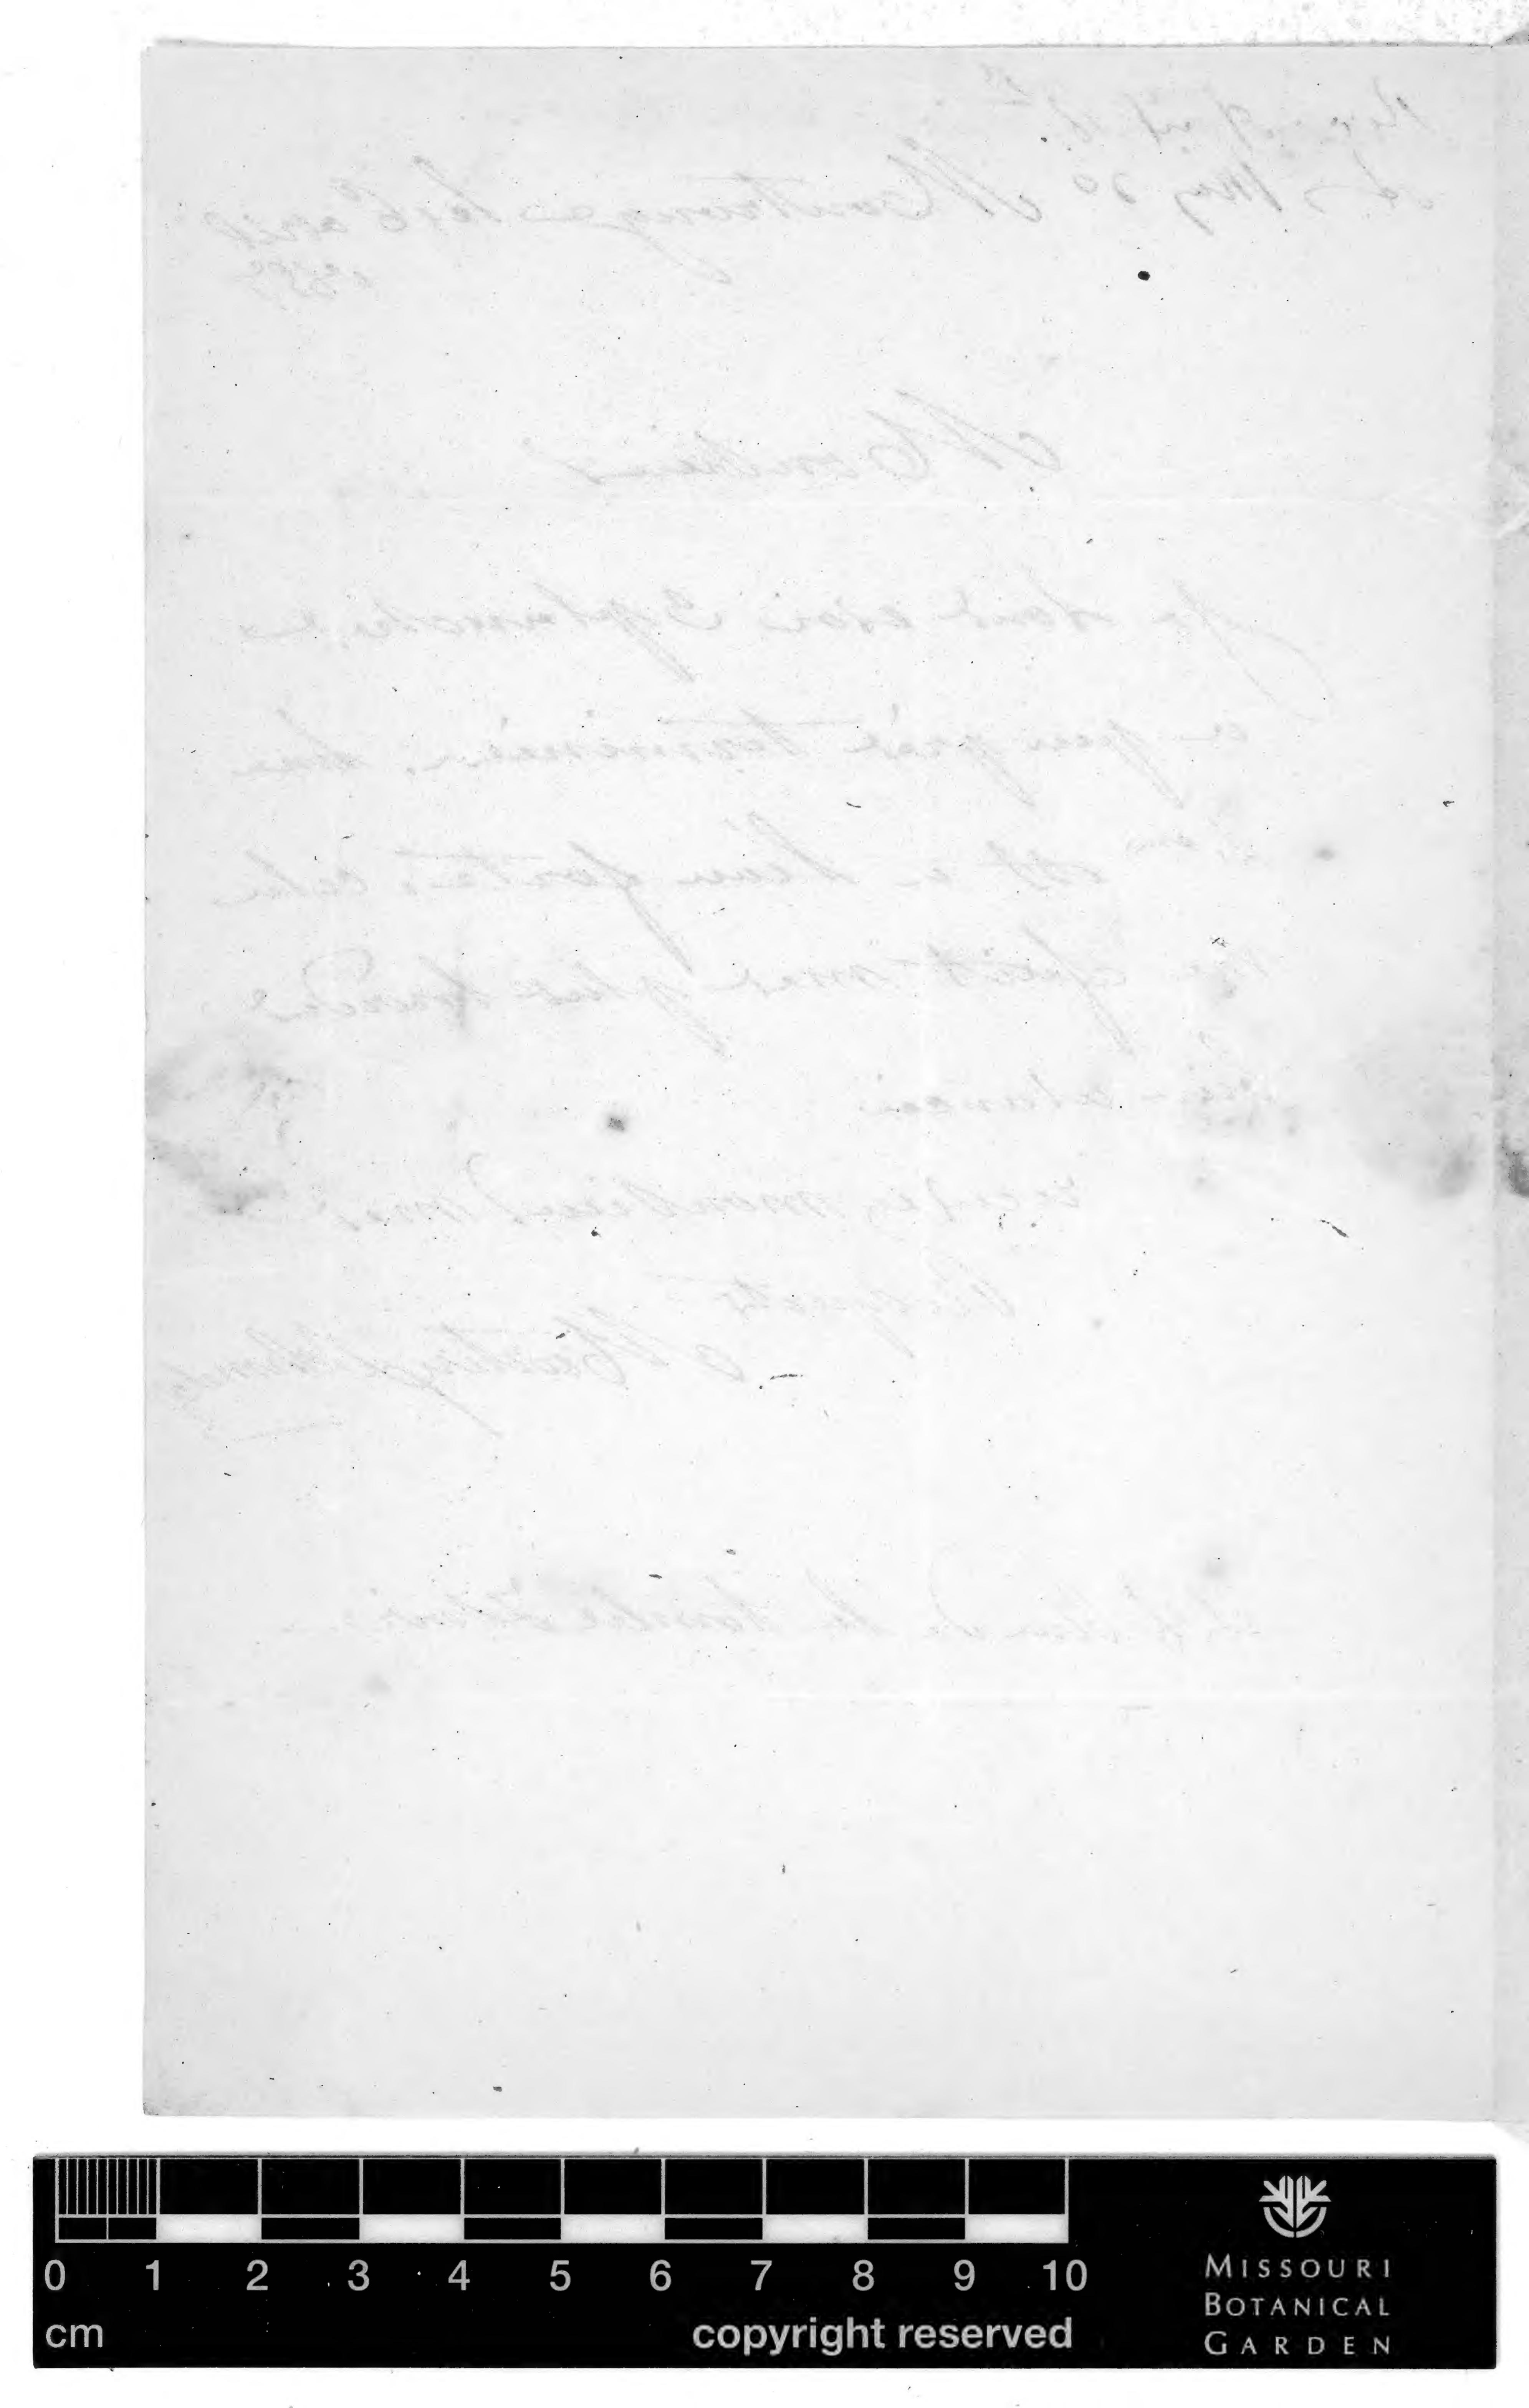

Receive, Sir, the assurances of my respect.

Sir.

Mr. Rebuffet visited you yesterday morning with the engraving on the plate that you sent me. I did not think that his occupation would give him time. But he has made a very good engraving.

Receive, Sir, my respects

Rec. Naples March 5

Montrouge Feb. 19, 1858

Sir,

Having to stop doing engravings and beginning a small business it has been impossible for me to finish your plate. I gave it to Mr. Picart who is a very capable person and will satisfy you. He will bring it to you with his own and with the same arrangements that I made with you. If you have some observations to make please send them to me at Rue of the Old Temple 91, Paris, from the 20th of this month on.

Receive, Sir, my respects
